I wanna live my dreams and not my fears

A vow for the New Year.

Continuing my stories and thoughts in music as a Time Traveler I am excited to share my new song.

It shall inspire you, empower you and make you groove it out.

For decades I have been inspired by Al Jarreau. The imprint and inspiration he gave me are unforgettable, his kindness and never ending creativity are mind blowing. He lives forever, also in my heart and soul.

I do not want to falter and surrender to my fears, instead I want to thrive on fulfilling and living my dreams.

Music and Lyrics by Ute Lemper

Production by Ute Lemper and Todd Turkisher

Of course I am a dreamer, but I am not the only one...
